

Chuck Statler
Taylor County Commissioner
Precinct 4

Chuck Statler, a graduate of Abilene Christian University has served as a Taylor County Commissioner since 1998, serving his sixth consecutive term, he has developed special interest in many areas of county government. He is a veteran of the United States Army having served in Europe in the Military Police Corps. Prior to his public service, he was an Advertising Executive for KTAB-TV for 15 years.

He believes that every county elected official must be willing to make or suggest changes in the way we conduct county business. He feels that county officials, especially County Judges and Commissioners should communicate with their colleagues, looking at Best Practices throughout the State as a tool to help them do a better job in their respective county. As the longest serving member on the Commissioners' Court, Commissioner Statler also serves as the Judge pro-tempore.

Professional

- Oversight Committee for the West Texas Regional Task Force for Public Defense for Capital Murder Cases
- Abilene/Taylor County Mental Health Jail Diversion Task Force
- Texas Association of Counties Leadership Foundation Board,
- Abilene/Taylor County Venue Tax Board. He is a past President of the 118 county member
- West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association-Prior President
- Texas Association of Counties and the County Judges and Commissioners Association-Board Member
- Executive Committee for the West Central Texas Council of Governments
- County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas-Education Committee
- National President for the Association of Chamber Ambassadors-Two Terms

Personal

- Married for 35 years to the Sherri (Todd) Statler, President of Christian Homes and Family Services
- Family: one daughter, Caroline

Other

- Radio sports play-by-play announcer for local high school football, basketball and baseball for 38 years

Chuck often says, “There isn’t many men my age that look forward to going to work every day as much as I do, because I have the pleasure of serving the people of Taylor County.”